

Brad Tallman

CHIEF SUPPLY CHAIN OFFICER and HEAD OF OPERATIONS

Brad Tallman joined Pure Storage as Chief Supply Chain Officer in 2023. He is responsible for both the strategy and execution of Pure's end-to-end global supply chain operations, from planning and fulfillment to manufacturing engineering, new product introduction, quality, and more, and lean enterprise efforts in support of driving and maintaining Pure's overall operational excellence.

Brad's supply chain expertise spans more than two decades, and enables him to lead with a customer-first mindset that ensures an unparalleled customer and partner experience.

Most recently, Brad served as Senior Vice President of Supply Chain Operations at Juniper, where he drove the strategic design and management of a global supply chain network providing differentiated services to Juniper, its customers, and its partners, while enabling the realization of cutting-edge technology to power the next generation of networking. He also previously served as Vice President of Manufacturing and Planning Operations at Juniper.

Prior to Juniper, Brad held executive leadership roles at Cisco, VeriFone, and Palm.

Brad has an MBA in Supply Chain Management and Finance from Michigan State University, a JD from University of San Diego School of Law, and a BA in History from Pepperdine University.

He is also a recognized leader, speaker and author on Integrated Business Planning (IBP) and a recipient of the 2017 Oracle Excellence Award for Supply Chain and the Supply Chain Leadership Award from the National Association of Manufacturers.
